Sandra's Goodwill® Success Story

“Goodwill helped me get hands-on experience by setting me up with a job...”

I was referred to Goodwill through a local program and met with a Goodwill Mission Services counselor who specialized in helping young people like me. They helped me prepare for the workforce with interview practice, resume building, and customer service training. I got hands-on experience at a job where I learned how to use my new skills. The “paid work experience” job was temporary, but the manager thought I was a great worker and hired me on as a full-time employee.

I am so grateful to Goodwill and all the guidance they gave me. I recently met with a college counselor and am going to pursue a bachelor's degree in computer science. My Goodwill counselor also gave me the assistance I need to apply for scholarships and financial aid.
